Screen

Practical and aesthetic external roller shutters designed for installation on the facade of the building or in the window recess. Thanks to its structure, made of fiberglass and PVC, the system of external roller shutters is a great protection against overheating of rooms. It provides comfort to its users, especially in warm seasons. The model is also available in a version that provides protection against insects and strong wind. Fabric: made of a mixture of fiberglass and PVC

SCREEN

ROLLER SHUTTER

SCREEN-TECH